

WOMEN IN FINANCE MEMBER WORKSHOP

Member Workshop - Making the Most of First Impressions

Tuesday 9th September 2008 at 6pm

at NAB Buildings, 800 Bourke St, Docklands

(Level will be confirmed prior to workshop)

We are pleased to invite you to our next Member Workshop on Making the Most of First Impressions.

What do your clothes, hair, accessories & make-up say about you?

Discover the power of first impressions and managing how your clients perceive your visual image. You will learn 'what not to do' when it comes to complete professional sabotage of your image.

Imagine knowing at a glance, every time, what's 'just right' for you in clothes and accessories.

If you:

- o Prefer style to fashion
- o Love clothes but not prices
- o Have a black or neutral wardrobe
- o Want your clothes to coordinate and work hard for you
- o Want to do more with less
- o Are confused about make-up and want it to be easy

Then join a fun, interactive class with Helen Robinett.

Helen is a leader in personal image and styling. Highly qualified and experienced to help you optimise your first impression, she will reveal your best colouring for clothing your individual style expression.

Learning to use colour and personal styling to your advantage can be a revelation. Once you know what looks good on you, you can select garments, assemble outfits and create styles with complete confidence.

Classes are limited to fifteen participants for maximum personal attention. Here's what you get:

- o Colour, contrast & metal (gold vs silver) analysis
- o Personal colour wheel (your 'magic key')
- o Clear advice on suits & other investment garments
- o Comprehensive notes

Cost:

Members: $20

Non Members: $25

(Includes light refreshments)
